Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent some flowers,
if so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friends could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
we thank you so much,
Whatever the part.

Tributes

I appreciate Jabari being like a father to me from the beginning. When ever I was in trouble he was always there to talk to and guide me. I love you forever and always Jungle Man.

~ Big Jay

I thank God for loaning you to me over these past eight years. We shared so many memoires together over this short time. I couldn't have chosen a better person to be a father to our sons. You will forever have a special place in my heart. Not only did you earn your stripes while on earth, but now you have your wings to fly high.

Always & Forever Bae,
~ Jerimi

My daddy said "Be a Big Boy Forever!" We had fun together and when I see you again we will have more fun. I love you daddy.

~ Your Big Dog

To my one & only son-in-law; I give God the most highest praise for blessing our family with the most special son-in-law I could've ever had. Jabari, you were my second son who loved us and who we loved and loved unconditionally. Fly high now son you are free. Keep watch over us as we will all see you again.

~ Love 4 Ever, Moma Price

To My Cousin Jabari, I am forever grateful for the time we had together. We have separated in the flesh, and you will live in my heart until we meet again for eternity.

~ Love You Forever, Aquelah

Thank you brother for always being there for whatever I needed. Thank you for listening whenever I wanted to talk to you and no one else. Even though you thought you were my dad at times, you gave me advice that I needed. I could always count on you. We shared a bond that only you and I could understand. I love you Jabari. Rest Easy.

~ Oni

Life Reflections

Jabari Lateef Walker was born on March 1st, 1984 to the union of Willie and Pamela Walker in Brooklyn, New York. From the day of his birth, he lived up to that name which means "Brave and Nobel". Loyal is another attribute that can be attached to our dear son, father, brother and friend.

Jabari and his family moved back to Saint Louis in 1993 when he was nine years old. He started his education at Willow Brook Elementary. He graduated from Hazelwood West and attended Missouri Valley College. Jabari was employed with Boeing Aircraft.

Jabari loved sports and is a somewhat of a legend amongst his childhood friends according to him (he stayed reliving his glory days). Those who knew Jabari closely often witnessed the comedic side of him, especially when he was in his role as philosopher or sharing some weird science fact. Jabari had a quote for everything.

Jabari was a devoted son, father, brother, uncle and friend. He always took everyone's problems and tried to help them conquer them no matter how big or small. His love for his family was undeniable. Jaleel who will always be his "BIG DOG" is following in his athletic footsteps. He leaves his twin Jakhai as a memory for us to have of him. Jaylen will be the "big" brother who sets the tone for his brothers and Jabari was a true father figure to him.

He was the "Best Grill Master", on any nice summer day he would pick to BBQ. He loved cooking and always would be open to anyone coming to all of his events. He would tell you the food would be done by 4 o'clock, but we all knew him and time was never on his side. He would be grilling until 8 o'clock. Especially if the neighbors asked him to cook their food. The word "NO" wasn't in his vocabulary.

He departed this life on March 21, 2016 at 9:16 a.m. He was preceded in death by his nephew Nazir Walker

Jabari leaves to cherish his memories: his three sons~ Jakhai, Jaleel and Jaylen; his significant other~ Jerimi Reed; his parents~ Pamela & Willie Walker; grandmother~ Shirley Thomas; siblings~ Shakar (Sarnia), Jelani (Soraya), Ameer, and Oni (Desmond); three nieces~ Nadirah, Aminah and Ivy; one nephew~ Isaiah; special momma~ Stephanie Price; one uncle~ Shelton Thomas (Crystal); four aunts~ Lisa Garnes, Yvette McMorris (Charles), Deborah Molina (Ernest) and Juana Walker; and a host of other relatives and friends.
